

Table 1. Storyboarding questions.

Breakout Group Questions	To consider:
Q1. What do you think is important to include in this RLO about brief interventions for alcohol prevention in urgent and emergency settings?	What are the key topics we should cover? What are the most important guidelines healthcare staff need to know about? What sort of information will be essential for urgent and emergency staff to understand to be able to deliver brief health promotion intervention around alcohol? Think about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Population (service-users)</li> <li>• Environment</li> <li>• Challenges and barriers</li> <li>• Facilitators</li> <li>• Attitudes towards health promotion</li> <li>• Knowledge and skills</li> <li>• Team-working</li> </ul>
Q2. How do you think the information should be best presented for maximum engagement?	How best to present the content? How to make it interactive? Is there a better order for materials? What will encourage people to engage with this training?
Q3. What evidence-based resources should we signpost people to?	Extra resources aimed at staff using the RLO Helpful resources for signposting service users